The Augusta County Library will be opening up their bookdrops for patrons to return their materials, beginning Tuesday, May 26. Materials from Staunton Public Library and Waynesboro Public Library may also be returned in these bookdrops, but note that no donations will be accepted.

The Augusta County Library will also be re-starting curbside service at the Fishersville location and the Churchville location, beginning Wednesday, June 10. Curbside pick-up will be available Monday-Friday, 10 am-4 pm.

- Patrons will be allowed to place 15 holds per card for pick-up.
- Holds can only be placed on Fishersville and Churchville items at this time.
- Patrons must wait to receive a hold arrival notification before picking up their materials from Fishersville or Churchville.

"We have missed all of our patrons, and appreciate the cooperation during such a difficult time," said Diantha McCauley, director of the Augusta County Library.

For questions or more information, call 540-885-3961 or 540-949-6354, or email ask@augustacountylibrary.org.

The Augusta County Library is located at 1759 Jefferson Hwy, Fishersville.

Other locations include a Churchville branch, as well as stations in Craigsville, Deerfield, Middlebrook, and Stuarts Draft.
